

CLIFF TAM & DR. TAM WAI JIA

| JOINT BIO

Joined by a vision to serve the poor globally, an accidental Google search led Cliff and Wai Jia's paths to cross, despite living ten thousand miles apart. As a missional couple who speak and serve internationally, their lives are marked by adventure and radical obedience. With Cliff's trademark candour and his megawatt smile, and Wai Jia's signature vulnerability and authenticity, you will be moved to tears and action as you hear their stories of faith and faithfulness. Join Cliff Tam, a post-liver-transplant-cancer survivor, IronMan triathlete, missionary-stay-at-home-dad, and Dr. Tam Wai Jia, a humanitarian doctor and Founder & CEO of Kitesong Global, as they share their hearts. Follow them on Instagram @tamwaijia and @cliff.tam for inspiration on faith, missions, relationships, and parenting their two rambunctious toddlers.
