

DR. TAM WAI JIA

MBBS, MPH, MTS

Founder of Kitedreams, Kitesong Global,
My Brother SG, and Speak Truth in Love

| SHORT FAITH-BASED BIO (VERSION 1)

Wai Jia is an award-winning humanitarian doctor, keynote speaker, author, founder of international non-profit Kitesong Global, and global health expert who has worked with the World Health Organization and UNICEF to impact vulnerable communities. Selected for Forbes Asia's inaugural 30 under 30 list, she moves seamlessly between marketplace and faith-based spheres, bringing God's word to life through her authentic, vulnerable voice. Her life of resilience, risk and surrender in the mission field and marketplace inspires people to choose courage over comfort, obedience over convenience, and to say an unabandoned yes to God. She is married to her cancer-surviving, IronMan, missionary husband, Cliff, and they have two rambunctious toddlers, Sarah-Faith and Esther-Praise. Follow her on Instagram @tamwaijia and at www.kitedreams.org.

| SHORT FAITH-BASED BIO (VERSION 2)

Wai Jia is a multi-award-winning humanitarian doctor, missionary, keynote speaker, founder of international ministries Kitedreams and Kitesong Global, and more recently, author of "Dream Brave: A Dare to Live by Faith When You Feel Too Small". Her life of resilience, risk and surrender in the mission field and marketplace inspires people to choose courage over comfort, obedience over convenience, and to say an unabandoned yes to God.